CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

I wish to take this chance to express my gratitude for the attention and assistance accorded to me and my daughter when we came for treatment at Oasis Specialist Hospital. I am glad I received a ripple mattress which has helped my daughter heal the bed sores she had been suffering from. Thanks for the services received and continue with the same spirit. Earnest Appreciation and blessings in abundance.

SPEAKERS PROFILE

Hon. Harriette I.J. Chiggai

Presidents' Women rights Advisor
Cabinet level appointment.

Hon. Harriette I.J. Chiggai is the President's Advisor on Women's Rights in Kenya, a pioneering role where she advocates for the rights and empowerment of women and girls. She provides key counsel to the President on gender equality and leads the integration of the Women's Agenda into Kenya's national policies, aligning with the Bottom-up Economic Transformation Agenda (BETA) and Women's Charter.

With over a decade of experience as a legal professional and senior manager, Hon. Chiggai has served on numerous government boards in Kenya and East Africa. She is passionate about women's empowerment, leadership, and youth mentorship, and was named 2015 Phenomenal Africa Woman of the Year by PAW Africa for her impactful mentorship. Additionally, she is recognized as a Gender Data Champion by Data2X, a UN Foundation affiliate, for her work in advancing gender data initiatives.

Kadri Humal-Ayal

Honorary Consul of Estonia

Kadri Humal-Ayal, the Honorary Consul of Estonia in Kenya since 2009, has lived in Kenya for over 30 years. Recognized for her contributions to Estonia-Africa relations, she was awarded Estonia's Cross of Merit in 2021. Kadri is a business consultant and active Rotary Club member, championing humanitarian initiatives. She has facilitated Estonian business networks in East Africa, establishing Nairobi as a key location for diplomatic and business relations within Sub-Saharan Africa. Her experience includes HR, consultancy, and entrepreneurship, enhancing cross-cultural exchange and development.

Margaret Khainga,

ThogotoTTC Chief Principal

Principal Margaret plays a vital role in shaping Kenya's education landscape as a member of the Presidential Working Party on Education Reforms. Her involvement in this influential committee reflects her deep commitment to advancing accessible, equitable, and quality education nationwide. As Principal of Thogoto Teachers Training College, she promotes inclusivity and excellence, advocating for students with disabilities and championing events that nurture diverse talents. Her leadership embodies a dedication to progressive education reforms, reinforcing her impact on both policy and student empowerment in Kenya.

SPEAKERS PROFILE

Johnson M. Nzioka, HSC

KEPSHA Chair

Johnson M. Nzioka, HSC, is the current national chairperson of the Kenya Primary Schools Head Teachers Association (KEPSHA). Renowned for his advocacy in advancing primary education, Nzioka focuses on improving policies for the welfare of teachers and educational standards across Kenya. He is celebrated for his dedication to leadership and has played a pivotal role in guiding KEPSHA through impactful initiatives that address systemic challenges in the education sector. His contributions have earned him the Head of State Commendation (HSC) for his service to the community and education.

Rose Kamene Mwanthi

Governance Expert & Life Coach

Rose is an accomplished banker with 33 years of experience, 80% of which is within the banking industry. She holds a First Class Honors in Commerce from the University of Pune and a Diploma in Computer Science. Rose has received prestigious training from institutions across Kenya, New York, South Africa, and West Africa. Over her career, she has held senior management positions, including Head of Liabilities, Head of Consumer Banking, and Senior Manager for International Development. As the current Head of Women Banking at Family Bank, she launched QUEEN BANKING, serving over 460,000 women. A passionate advocate for gender equality, Rose has led initiatives supporting women's financial empowerment. She has earned multiple accolades, including the Standard Bank Group's "Top Women Employee Award" (2022) and the USAID "Best & Brightest" scholarship. Rose is also involved in community service, serving on boards like Rotary Club of Nairobi and Special Olympics Kenya.

Mr. Splinter Buluku

dedicated educator and community leader

Mr. Buluku, head of the Guiding and Counseling Department at Takaungu Secondary School, is a dedicated educator and mental health advocate focused on enhancing young people's well-being. He has cultivated a welcoming, inclusive school environment where students, teachers, and staff feel supported, empowered, and understood. Known for his holistic approach, Mr. Buluku emphasizes emotional intelligence and resilience in his teaching, promoting a school culture rooted in empathy and mental wellness. His commitment extends beyond the classroom, as he leads online campaigns and community programs to address mental health challenges. By inspiring resilience, confidence, and self-worth in students and educators alike, Mr. Buluku is a transformative force in mental health advocacy both within and outside the school.
